

Accessibility.--The Committee understands the Smithsonian is committed to making all facilities accessible, including for individuals that are hard of hearing, and requests a report within 60 days of enactment of this Act describing how it meets that goal, including its collaboration with the National Park Service.